

Local Author Fair

Author Application

Apache Junction Public Library's first Local Author Fair will be held November 30 from 4-7 PM. We welcome all local authors to participate.

Participation Requirements

Authors must:

- Live in Arizona at least part of the year.
- Have at least one book published (via any method; e-books are fine).
- Be willing to participate for the entire 3-hour length of the program.
- Obtain a business license in the City of Apache Junction before November 30, 2026, if desiring to sell books at the event (note: the cost of a business license is $50; the Library cannot assist with this cost).

Event Setup

- Each author will be given their own table to set up as they choose.
- Authors may not move furniture, but can decorate the table as desired (tablecloths, displays, etc.) as long as it does not block aisles, another author's table, or access to any part of the building.
- Authors may arrive beginning at 3 PM on November 30 to set up their table.
- Authors must have all decorations and items removed from their table before the Library closes at 8 PM. Authors may not leave items overnight to pick up later.
- Water will be available for all participating authors.
- Authors will be allowed to sell their books at this event, provided they have acquired a business license (see above). The Library cannot assist with the process of selling the books. The author must handle transactions themselves.
- Authors or a representative will remain at the table the entire length of the program.
- No animals except service animals are allowed in the Library.
- Public restrooms are available in the building.
