Short paragraph, to include the following:

Summarize your thoughts of the book as a whole.

I am reviewing this book because...

Tell us a few interesting details about characters and/or the setting.

Tell us about the theme, the author's intent and what's happening.

Tell us about your favorite parts and characters. Why did the book keep you hooked, or not?

Summarize your final thoughts and let us know if it's a must read or a hard pass.

This book provided insight to the challenges of the desire to belong with the needs of following your own moral compass.

I reviewed the book because of the cultural aspect and clashes between cultural expectations. The protagonist is a young woman with a "foot" in two cultures. Facing the loss of loved ones she is forced to make decisions that will

have an impact on her family.

My favorite part is the manner in which she employed scientific reasoning and deduction. The book is a definite read. Once I reached the climax of the story, I struggled to set aside, I had to finish. Great story!
